

Tune — Founder Companion

60 hours of orchestrated autonomy. Move from co-assisted drafting to running a small ensemble of agents on your behalf.

Every module runs three tracks at once.

NARRATIVE

You stopped being the bottleneck. The ensemble drafts while you conduct.

COGNITIVE

Tune = orchestration ontology. Each agent has a role (voice, verifier, scribe, skeptic) and a bounded axis.

IDENTITY

From soloist to conductor. From doing every note to shaping every phrase.

Why this matters

Reclaim the part of the work that must stay conducted, not delegated.

"What is the taste that only you can hold?"

01. Taste Inventory

15 min

Name your non-negotiable aesthetic.

Prompt: List 7 things that must be true of anything shipped in your name.

Debrief: Read aloud. Notice which items surprise you.

02. The Conductor's Chair

5 min

Physically claim the role.

Prompt: Sit in one designated chair. Only from this chair do you make orchestration decisions.

Debrief: Debrief the felt difference between conducting and doing.

03. Ensemble Manifesto

15 min

Declare what the ensemble is for.

Prompt: Draft a 3-line manifesto: purpose, boundary, promise.

Debrief: Post above the conductor's chair.

The reframe

See orchestration as composition, not automation.

"What ensemble arrangement did you not know was possible?"

01. Role Casting

20 min

Assign specific roles to specific agents.

Prompt: Cast 4 agents: voice, verifier, scribe, skeptic.
One-sentence job description each.

Debrief: Debate the skeptic's brief hardest. That's where quality lives.

02. Score Reading

25 min

Read a completed multi-agent run like a score.

Prompt: Take a past transcript. Color-code each turn by which role should have spoken.

Debrief: Ask: 'Which role was silent when it should have played?'

03. Cadenza

15 min

Let one agent solo on purpose.

Prompt: Run one 15-min segment where only the skeptic speaks.

Debrief: Notice what the ensemble learns when one voice is centered.

Organize complexity

Introduce orchestration ontology — the score itself.

"What is the shape of the piece you're conducting?"

01. The Score

40 min

Draw your workflow as a musical score.

Prompt: Bars = phases. Staves = roles. Notes = handoffs. Draw one project.

Debrief: Ask: 'Where does the score have rests? Should it?'

02. Handoff Protocol

25 min

Formalize inter-agent handoffs.

Prompt: Write 3 handoff templates: voice→verifier, scribe→skeptic, skeptic→voice.

Debrief: Test one live. Ask: 'What broke? What held?'

03. Governance Line

15 min

Draw the line the ensemble cannot cross.

Prompt: List 5 decisions only the conductor can make. Publish to the ensemble config.

Debrief: Ask: 'Which of these could you delegate in 6 months?'

Pattern discovery

Discover where the ensemble surprises you — good and bad.

"What emerged that no single agent — and no single you — could have made alone?"

01. Surprise Log

60 min

Track ensemble emergent behavior.

Prompt: For one week, log every output that surprised you (good or bad). One line each.

Debrief: In group: cluster the surprises. Ask: 'Which want to become features?'

02. The Silent Skeptic

180 min

Rest the skeptic and see what fails.

Prompt: Run 3 days with the skeptic silenced. Track quality shift.

Debrief: Debrief: 'What did the skeptic protect that you didn't notice?'

03. Ensemble Retrospective

20 min

Let the ensemble evaluate itself.

Prompt: Ask each role to write a 3-line self-assessment. Read them aloud.

Debrief: Ask: 'Which self-assessment did you disagree with?'

Commitment

Ship one thing the ensemble ran end-to-end. Under your baton.

"What did the ensemble ship this month that you only conducted?"

01. The Baton Test

240 min

Run one full project by conducting only.

Prompt: Pick one small deliverable. You may only prompt, tune roles, and approve. No drafting.

*Debrief: Publish the deliverable with a byline: 'Conducted by ____.
Performed by ensemble.'*

02. Cost of Conducting

30 min

Measure what conducting actually took.

Prompt: Log your minutes: prompting, tuning, approving. Nothing else.

Debrief: Ask: 'Did the ensemble save time — or shift what your time was worth?'

03. Second-Chair Handoff

30 min

Prepare someone else to conduct.

Prompt: Write a 1-page onboarding for the next conductor of your ensemble.

Debrief: Have them run one segment under your baton.

COMMITMENT CONTRACT

"What will your ensemble ship this month that you will only conduct?"

This month my ensemble will ship _____. I will only _____ (prompt / tune / approve). The second chair I am preparing is _____.

Witness — The person named as your second chair.
